TREASURER'S REPORT

Ruling Elder John A. Dickson, IV, Treasurer, presented his written report calling attention to the financial reports for the second operating month, for the period ending February 28, 2021. He noted the following: both revenue and expense expectations for this period, to keep pace with mission objectives are to be at a budgeted threshold goal of 17%. Church Commitments and other Income for the month fell short of budget expectations totaling -$6, 130. Total Income for the month exceeded monthly expectations at $6, 768 due to the Payroll Protection Program dollars for the period totaling $16,100. Year to Date the budget is behind around $17,000. The Ameriprise account of our Investments and Holdings for the month of February experienced a positive change in value totaling $10,459 year to date.

EXECUTIVE PRESBYTER REPORT

Rev. Richard "Skip" Noftzger, Executive Presbyter, noted his written report. He highlighted the book A Great Time to Be Alive from 1944 which is a series of sermons of Harry Emerson Fosdick of the Riverside Church in New York City. Skip mentioned that he had recently pulled out a photo from before the Covid 19 shutdown began and to see how far we have come in the last year or so. This last year has given us a new perspective as we have been challenged in our faith. There are some parallels to life in the World War II era and what we have been through this past year. It is our hope that we will not just fall back into the way things used to be as we have been challenged. Skip also called attention to the Pastors Day away on April 5th at Pine Spring and to the pre-recorded services available for use.

BOARD OF PENSIONS REPORT

Rev. Doug Portz gave a report to the Presbytery on the Board of Pensions. He highlighted some of the updates that the Board of Pensions is offering to local churches and pastors. The BOP has become more flexible in meeting the needs of the churches. There are several Wellness Resources available to members and family members, Employee Assistance Plan, Well-Being Respite, Medical Plan and several Continuing opportunities for points to lower medical deductibles for 2022. January 1 the Board moved to Express Scripts for Prescription coverage. There is also a Transitional Coverage Change that began on January 1st, for the entire month that the pastor departs. Dues remains at 37% of effective salary for 2021. There is a new Temporary Disability Plan for 2021, run by Lincoln Financial. The Minister's Choice plan has been reduced to 10% of effective salary for those who work at least 20 hours a week. When Terms of Call change in 2021 the church's Employer Representative needs to update info in Benefits Connect.

WORSHIP

We were led in worship by John Salveson, organist of First, Greensburg, Elder Lynn Mance, Robin Jennings, soloist. Rev. John Welch delivered the sermon and Rev. Martin Ankrum presided over the Lord's Supper.

Information Items (as published)

February 23, 2021 Meeting
Moderator requested that the agenda as submitted be considered. That agenda was approved by consent.

Moderator West solicited whether there were any additions or revisions to the minutes of the January 12 meeting which had been submitted by email. Hearing none, it was MSP to approve the minutes as submitted.

Moderator Report
Moderator West noted the need for the Council to nominate members to the Nominating Committee (Manual). He proposed the possible nomination of Rev. Ron Durika to fill the open slot. It was MSP to recommend Rev. Durika to the Presbytery for service on the Nominating Committee.

Stated Clerk Report
Rev. Noftzger noted that the most recent correspondence log provided was up to the present and inquired whether there were any questions. The Council reviewed the particular letter received from the Session of the Delmont and considered possible responses. After much discussion, it was agreed that the Council should reach out to the Session to encourage possible in person conversation and dialogue over their concerns and differences with our actions. Volunteers to represent the Council included: Rev. Curtis Paul, Belinda Lambie and Rev. Donna Havrisko. Rev. Noftzger agreed to write a short letter requesting the opportunity to meet together.

Reviewing the upcoming Presbytery schedule, Rev. Noftzger affirmed our intention to hold the March and May meetings to be conducted at the host site of First Presbyterian, Greensburg, but primarily offered through Zoom. It remains our hope to host the September meeting alongside Washington Presbytery in person at Pine Springs Camp.

Treasurer Report
Treasurer John Dickson had submitted a written report which was reviewed by the Council. Moderator West inquired concerning any questions about the report.

Pine Springs Camp
Executive Director Greg Davis had submitted a written report. He also reviewed orally the current status of the upcoming summer camping ministry as well as some anticipated retreat experiences as single day events.

March Presbytery Gathering
Rev. Noftzger reviewed the proposed agenda for the upcoming Presbytery gathering by Zoom. The agenda includes the commissioning of Eric Glisan to particular pastoral service, recommendation of an administrative commission, potential testimonies from Matthew 25 congregations and additional nominations to standing committees. Since the meeting will be conducted by Zoom, he solicited from the Council about suggestions for a preacher who is outside our area. Rev. Paul recommended Rev. John Welch, formerly of Pittsburgh Seminary, who had preached recently at Newlonsburg. After discussion, it was agreed that we would request Rev. Welch to bring the proclamation of the Word. It was MSP to approve the proposed March Presbytery agenda as offered with that addition.

Staff Support

No report.

Communications

Additional members of the Council signed up for eNews articles in the upcoming months. In his absence, Rev. Noftzger noted his meeting with Rev. Glunt who has agreed to chair this group and reorganize these functions.

Mission Committee

Rev. Havrisko noted our most recent contribution of 7000 to our partnership with the South Sudan Presbyterian Evangelical Church. Our contributions to support their needs have been consistent thanks to the generosity of individuals and congregations within the Presbytery. Rev. Noftzger noted the discussion at the most recent Mission meeting was focused on eradicating systemic poverty in our region. As a Matthew 25 emphasis and because other groups were working on issues of racism and congregational vitality, the Mission group is looking for opportunities to address issues of poverty not only for individual congregations, but in shared commitments.

Budget, Finance and Stewardship

A written report of the activities of the Budget, Finance and Stewardship meeting was submitted. A summary of the final investments and holdings report for 2020 was reviewed. Additionally, it was recommended that the Ameriprise account be changed to an Advisor discretionary account which would permit changes within the parameters of the Investment policy without requiring prior approval. It was MSP to make this change.

Current pledges as well has historic pledges and actual amounts were provided for all congregations in Redstone Presbytery. Rev. Noftzger summarized the stewardship process by which Sessions are solicited for a First Fruits pledge and reminded among those who did not respond. Additionally, he discussed the various ways that congregations approach either making a pledge and/or soliciting their own congregants for either monies to offset that pledge or only to pass on what is received. Reviewing the results based upon categories of those churches significantly under-represented in providing their appropriate share, a few volunteers from the Council offered to personally follow up with some specific churches.

Addictions Ministry Network
Lynn Mance reported on the progress of the video curriculum which is undergoing final editing by Rev. McDermott. Upon completion, it will be distributed through portable formats and posted on the Presbytery YouTube channel. After the Presbytery promo, some requests for copies have already come in.

Racial Justice and Reconciliation Network
Rev. Paul and Rev. Noftzger talked about the initial meeting of the network which focused on ways to move beyond our statement to engage conversations and experiences that might make a difference in transforming perspectives and values among us. Possible options include formal training in anti-racism, dialogue groups and firsthand experiences here and with important resources on the history and issues of racial justice and reconciliation.

Executive Presbyter
Reminding the Council of our commitment to the Matthew 25 initiative, he noted that in addition to Fort Burd, Colver, Pleasant View, Newlonsburg, the Session of New Hope has also joined the initiative. We remain committed to promoting this initiative among our congregations. Council members were encouraged to speak with their own sessions about the possibility.

Rev. Noftzger highlighted two upcoming opportunities for resourcing our pastors within the Presbytery.

- On April 5 (day after Easter), there will be a one-day "Pastor Getaway Day." Held at Pine Springs Camp, pastors will have an opportunity for a breather, for fun and fellowship with each other.
- Two recorded video worship services will be made available on the Presbytery YouTube channel for use in any churches for worship and/or to provide a "break" for the pastor. Rev. Noftzger will preach at one service and Rev. Silbert at the other. Either service could be used on the second Sunday of Easter or any subsequent Sundays.

Report of the Executive Presbyter

Almost a year into the pandemic and we have exercised creativity and courage. However, it continues to be about patience; patience intertwined with faith. Patience is to labor on even when you don't know the end. Baseball is about patience – the patience to persist whether a scout or the player. Patience to sit in the rain waiting for a game not knowing if it will be called.

For a year, we have been impatient for our current experience to end; to get back to "normal". During this time, we can offer encouragement to our church leaders. To be an encouragement is to be helpful, inspirational, and to provide a sense of courage to help spur someone on. We can provide the church leaders the persistence and patience to see it through by sending notes of encouragement and by being an advocate for them to take a break. A Pastor get away at Pine Springs is available after Easter as an opportunity to get away from Zoom meetings and get personal. Pre-recorded services by the EP will be available that are fitting for the second or third Sunday after Easter.

As a Committee on Ministry member, it is our responsibility to remind our churches that they are doing great work and to provide their examples of ministry in google form. With both congregation and pastor, the COM serves as pastor, counselor, and advisor. The COM, represented in its liaisons, are the "boots on the ground" with these ministries. Ultimately, it is about your relationship with the church through gathering, protecting, and preserving what God may desire in these ministries at this time. By God's grace and your effort, we are all hoping, praying, and intervening to "let the church be the church."

Get Acquainted with James Vlosich

- James is the Discipleship Coordinator at Trinity United, Uniontown. James joined the committee Zoom meeting to share his journey and sense of call. He attended Penn State Fayette and received a degree in Christian Counseling from Liberty University. Having grown up in Adah, he now lives in Uniontown and his in-laws have deep roots in Trinity. James spoke of an "awakening" concerning a possible call to ministry at Wee Kirk. He also mentioned the widening ministry opportunities at Trinity that contributed to the "tug on his heart" to ministry and specifically in the PCUSA tradition. He was anticipating enrollment at either Fuller (online exclusively), or Pittsburgh Theological Seminary (having been accepted at both) and welcomed the feedback from the committee about his decision process. He anticipates continuing to work 30 hours per week to support his family and seminary expense. Although James has been associated with Trinity as an employee for three years, because of COVID he only recently became a member of the congregation. Per CPM guidelines he must be a church member for at least six months before being accepted for committee care, although Trinity's session has voted to endorse his pursuit. This does not preclude him from enrolling in seminary, and then coming before the committee in an official way later this year.
- A motion was made by Tony, and seconded by Barbara, that "if the way be clear" with his membership (at the end of six months) and enrollment and other requirements such as form 1A, he will be listed as an inquirer at that time. Motion passed.

Updates on individual under care: Cynthia Bellina continues to struggle with health issues and is anticipating surgery March 16 for an unresolved heart condition; she is currently not enrolled in any courses or training experiences. Cynthia has been a candidate since Fall 2019

New business:

- Tony will reach out to Danielle Kendig at Westmont Presbyterian Church to determine her desire to begin dialogue with the committee at a future CPM meeting. She had previously expressed interest.
- Committee members were asked to prayerfully consider their participation as ordination exam readers for fall. Names will be taken at either March or April meeting for presentation at May Presbytery meeting. Robin expressed interest in reading again, having done so for the first time last fall.
