

Presbytery of Redstone

Communicate the Word...

Carry on the Work...

Change the World.....Together!

January Gathering Highlights

- On a cold day, Redstone Presbyterians gathered to “celebrate the past and to imagine the future.” Rev. Skip Noftzger challenged us to “become the gospel...again and again.” Prepared by Rev. Atkinson, a video montage of images of ministry within and among our congregations during the past year was enjoyed by all.
- Robin Toops, First Presbyterian, Irwin testified to the (privilege of “planting seeds” through the ministry of Pine Springs Camp, telling the story of her own role as a volunteer weekly director VWD). Executive Director Greg Davis noted the opening of summer camp registration.
- Transitions in Presbytery leadership took place as Moderator Laura Blank (Pleasant View) and Vice Moderator Chuck West (Puckety) were installed in their respective positions.
- Through video technology, the Presbytery received greetings from Rev. Philip Akway Obang, General Secretary (SSPEC). This year, Redstone Presbytery celebrates the 15-year anniversary of our partnership with the Sudan and South Sudan Presbyterian Evangelical Church.
- A time of thanksgiving took place for colleagues rejoicing in the ordination anniversaries of Minister of Word and Sacraments based upon five-year intervals. Ranging from five to sixty, we are grateful for God’s call of these servant leaders.
- Rev. Jane Johnson was welcomed to active ministry within Redstone as the new pastor through covenant of the Fort Burd and Calvin United Presbyterian churches.
