

Presbytery of Redstone

Communicate the Word...

Carry on the Work...

Change the World.....Together!

November Gathering Highlights

- While we may be “deep” in the midst of Covid, nonetheless the shared ministry and mission of our God through the Presbytery goes on.
- With the report of the Associate PNC of the Newlonsburg Presbyterian Church, Rev. Travis Webster was presented for examination. Coming from Georgia, Travis was received as the newest Minister in the Presbytery and the call to serve with Newlonsburg approved.
- Opportunities to consider becoming a Matthew 25 congregation were presented. Any congregation can commit to one or all of the priorities of congregational vitality, eradicating systemic poverty or dismantling structural racism.
- Synod Commissioner Bernice Adams updated the Presbytery on the work of the Synod addressing issues and concerns of the larger Church at its recent assembly.
- At his request, Rev. Dave McCabe was designated “Honorably Retired.” Ruling elders from both Cresson and Patton, where he served most recently offered some heartfelt reflections on his ministry among them.
- The Council presented the 2021 budget for our shared ministry and missions together. With the uncertainty of this season, this budget reflects a conservative plan for future.
- On a sad note, the Covenant Presbyterian Church of Boswell had requested dissolution as a congregation. This request was approved with an Administrative Commission appointed for oversight.

Presbytery of Redstone

Communicate the Word...

Carry on the Work...

Change the World.....Together!

November Gathering Highlights

- While we may be “deep” in the midst of Covid, nonetheless the shared ministry and mission of our God through the Presbytery goes on.
- With the report of the Associate PNC of the Newlonsburg Presbyterian Church, Rev. Travis Webster was presented for examination. Coming from Georgia, Travis was received as the newest Minister in the Presbytery and the call to serve with Newlonsburg approved.
- Opportunities to consider becoming a Matthew 25 congregation were presented. Any congregation can commit to one or all of the priorities of congregational vitality, eradicating systemic poverty or dismantling structural racism.
- Synod Commissioner Bernice Adams updated the Presbytery on the work of the Synod addressing issues and concerns of the larger Church at its recent assembly.
- At his request, Rev. Dave McCabe was designated “Honorably Retired.” Ruling elders from both Cresson and Patton, where he served most recently offered some heartfelt reflections on his ministry among them.
- The Council presented the 2021 budget for our shared ministry and missions together. With the uncertainty of this season, this budget reflects a conservative plan for future.
- On a sad note, the Covenant Presbyterian Church of Boswell had requested dissolution as a congregation. This request was approved with an Administrative Commission appointed for oversight.