

Presbytery of Redstone

Communicate the Word...

Carry on the Work...

Change the World.....Together!

May Gathering Highlights

- Using multimedia and personal reports, the Presbytery gathered both by Zoom and in person. New Salem has joined the Matthew 25 initiative. The closing service for the Boswell congregation was celebrated.
- Reflecting on the “wind is still blowing where it will,” Rev. Noftzger commended the imagination in ministry brought by God’s Spirit to our congregations for the recent past and for the future.
- Through “Zoom,” presbyters shared in worship through hearing the Word from Synod Executive Sue Wonderland and gathering around the Lord’s table. Her message called us to lay down our lives “one more time.”
- Rev. Lee McDermott, pastor of the McClellandtown and Grace Chapel congregations was honored in being designated “Honorably Retired.” Lee has served as a key leader in the Redstone Addictions Ministry Network.
- Resources from the Presbyterian Foundation were presented. Available on the Foundation website and through the Presbytery, Rev. Ellie Johns-Kelly Council highlighted the opportunities for generosity.
- Sewickley and Leisenring congregations have received new pastors as RE Karen Kifer and RE Tony Marciano were commissioned to pastoral service at those two congregations, respectively.
- Rev. Owar Ojulu shared his own testimony of coming to faith as the result of the history of Presbyterian missions. He was commissioned by the Presbytery for his upcoming trip to Ethiopia and South Sudan. of the South Sudan.

Presbytery of Redstone

Communicate the Word...

Carry on the Work...

Change the World.....Together!

May Gathering Highlights

- Using multimedia and personal reports, the Presbytery gathered both by Zoom and in person. New Salem has joined the Matthew 25 initiative. The closing service for the Boswell congregation was celebrated.
- Reflecting on the “wind is still blowing where it will,” Rev. Noftzger commended the imagination in ministry brought by God’s Spirit to our congregations for the recent past and for the future.
- Through “Zoom,” presbyters shared in worship through hearing the Word from Synod Executive Sue Wonderland and gathering around the Lord’s table. Her message called us to lay down our lives “one more time.”
- Rev. Lee McDermott, pastor of the McClellandtown and Grace Chapel congregations was honored in being designated “Honorably Retired.” Lee has served as a key leader in the Redstone Addictions Ministry Network.
- Resources from the Presbyterian Foundation were presented. Available on the Foundation website and through the Presbytery, Rev. Ellie Johns-Kelly Council highlighted the opportunities for generosity.
- Sewickley and Leisenring congregations have received new pastors as RE Karen Kifer and RE Tony Marciano were commissioned to pastoral service at those two congregations, respectively.
Rev. Owar Ojulu shared his own testimony of coming to faith as the result of the history of Presbyterian missions. He was commissioned by the Presbytery for his upcoming trip to Ethiopia and South Sudan. of the South Sudan.