

Presbytery of Redstone

Communicate the Word...

Carry on the Work...

Change the World...Together!

November Gathering Highlights

- Len Morgan, serving as moderator for his last meeting, the Presbytery was hosted by the Community United Presbyterian Church. As the congregation where he serves in pastoral service, Ruling Elder Len Morgan, he proclaimed the Word of our gathering as a “community of love.”
- Several non-controversial amendments to the Book of Order arising out of the 2024 Assembly were affirmed. The one amendment seeking to eliminate the need for a concurrence was disapproved by the presbytery. Amendments require approval of a majority of presbyteries.
- Jackie Eckenrod, a Ruling Elder, who recently completed the Inter-Presbytery Leadership Formation program, was commissioned to pastoral services on a temporary basis for any congregation in either Districts 2 or 3.
- Mission update on the quilt project and the gathering of the Sudan/South Sudan Mission Partnership Network were provided. Additionally, the Presbytery heard from Phyllis Frye on the mission activities and services of the Congruity Presbyterian Church in New Alexandria.
- The Committee on Ministry introduced Rev. Danielle Kendig who was examined at a called meeting and ordained in August to begin service as a Covenant Pastor serving the Ebensburg Presbyterian Church.
- The Nominating Committee nominated and the Presbytery elected Rev. Owar Ojulu to serve as Vice Moderator in 2025. Other Ruling and Teaching Elders were nominated and elected to the remaining positions of leadership on the Committee on Ministry and Committee on Preparation for Ministry, respectively.
- The Presbytery celebrated the retirement designation of both Rev. Mary Kay Glunt, Pastor of First, Belle Vernon and Rev. Skip Noftzger as Executive Presbyter. Rev. Noftzger was recognized by the Council for his nearly twelve years of service to the Presbytery of Redstone.
- Rev. Cliff Foster and Ruling Elder Bernice Adams who serve as Redstone commissioners to the Synod of the Trinity reported on the activities of the October assembly of the sixteen presbyteries.

Presbytery of Redstone

Communicate the Word...

Carry on the Work...

Change the World...Together!

November Gathering Highlights

- Len Morgan, serving as moderator for his last meeting, the Presbytery was hosted by the Community United Presbyterian Church. As the congregation where he serves in pastoral service, Ruling Elder Len Morgan, he proclaimed the Word of our gathering as a “community of love.”
- Several non-controversial amendments to the Book of Order arising out of the 2024 Assembly were affirmed. The one amendment seeking to eliminate the need for a concurrence was disapproved by the presbytery. Amendments require approval of a majority of presbyteries.
- Jackie Eckenrod, a Ruling Elder, who recently completed the Inter-Presbytery Leadership Formation program, was commissioned to pastoral services on a temporary basis for any congregation in either Districts 2 or 3.
- Mission update on the quilt project and the gathering of the Sudan/South Sudan Mission Partnership Network were provided. Additionally, the Presbytery heard from Phyllis Frye on the mission activities and services of the Congruity Presbyterian Church in New Alexandria.
- The Committee on Ministry introduced Rev. Danielle Kendig who was examined at a called meeting and ordained in August to begin service as a Covenant Pastor serving the Ebensburg Presbyterian Church.
- The Nominating Committee nominated and the Presbytery elected Rev. Owar Ojulu to serve as Vice Moderator in 2025. Other Ruling and Teaching Elders were nominated and elected to the remaining positions of leadership on the Committee on Ministry and Committee on Preparation for Ministry, respectively.
- The Presbytery celebrated the retirement designation of both Rev. Mary Kay Glunt, Pastor of First, Belle Vernon and Rev. Skip Noftzger as Executive Presbyter. Rev. Noftzger was recognized by the Council for his nearly twelve years of service to the Presbytery of Redstone.
- Rev. Cliff Foster and Ruling Elder Bernice Adams who serve as Redstone commissioners to the Synod of the Trinity reported on the activities of the October assembly of the sixteen presbyteries