

Presbytery of Redstone

Communicate the Word...

Carry on the Work...

Change the World...Together!

May 2025 Gathering Highlights

- The Presbytery was hosted by the Puckety Presbyterian Church of Lower Burrell. Moderator Susan Keaney guided the meeting. We were thankful for their hospitality. Elder and Candidate Hunter Steinitz of Pittsburgh Presbytery and later offered a powerful and informative presentation on Disability Inclusion. Rev. Brian Kilbert presided at the Table, and the Puckety Praise Band provided the music.
- Interim Executive Presbyter offered a written report and emphasized his pastoral role in the presbytery. Further, he announced a “summer read” of the new book Pilgrim Bands by his friend, Thomas Bandy, focusing on church as mutually mentoring one another. All in the presbytery are invited to participate. It has a kick led by the author on June 18th at 6:30 via Zoom.
- Pine Spring Camp Executive Director offered a spirited report on the imminent summer camps at the camp and elsewhere. COM Chair Martin Ankrum announced the dissolution of the Rev. Sara Sadler with the New Florence congregation and the Rev. Hyimot Teshone with the 1st Church of Johnstown. Rev. Sadler begins a pastorate in Northern Waters Presbytery and Rev. Teshone in Baltimore Presbytery. CPM Chair announced the readers of ordination exams from the presbytery. Council Chair Len Morgan presented four amendments in the Book of Order applying past actions to extend inclusion to other parts of our Constitution.
- Rev. Laura Blank announced the change of the Worship Committee to the Presbytery Design Team. Ten Racial Reconciliation Group led those present in small group discussions in response to the question, “What would the Kingdom of God look. Like in practical terms?”
- The Mission Committee reported on future individual and group service opportunities, progress on work on the St. Aban’s, WV Recovery House, and the increasing dire situation in the war in South Sudan. Finally, it invited the host church to give a Mission for Minute on its support of the Origins of Family and Pregnancy Services.

Presbytery of Redstone

Communicate the Word...

Carry on the Work...

Change the World...Together!

May 2025 Gathering Highlights

- The Presbytery was hosted by the Puckety Presbyterian Church of Lower Burrell. Moderator Susan Keaney guided the meeting. We were thankful for their hospitality. Elder and Candidate Hunter Steinitz of Pittsburgh Presbytery and later offered a powerful and informative presentation on Disability Inclusion. Rev. Brian Kilbert presided at the Table, and the Puckety Praise Band provided the music.
- Interim Executive Presbyter offered a written report and emphasized his pastoral role in the presbytery. Further, he announced a “summer read” of the new book Pilgrim Bands by his friend, Thomas Bandy, focusing on church as mutually mentoring one another. All in the presbytery are invited to participate. It has a kick led by the author on June 18th at 6:30 via Zoom.
- Pine Spring Camp Executive Director offered a spirited report on the imminent summer camps at the camp and elsewhere. COM Chair Martin Ankrum announced the dissolution of the Rev. Sara Sadler with the New Florence congregation and the Rev. Hyimot Teshone with the 1st Church of Johnstown. Rev. Sadler begins a pastorate in Northern Waters Presbytery and Rev. Teshone in Baltimore Presbytery. CPM Chair announced the readers of ordination exams from the presbytery. Council Chair Len Morgan presented four amendments in the Book of Order applying past actions to extend inclusion to other parts of our Constitution.
- Rev. Laura Blank announced the change of the Worship Committee to the Presbytery Design Team. Ten Racial Reconciliation Group led those present in small group discussions in response to the question, “What would the Kingdom of God look. Like in practical terms?”
- The Mission Committee reported on future individual and group service opportunities, progress on work on the St. Aban’s, WV Recovery House, and the increasing dire situation in the war in South Sudan. Finally, it invited the host church to give a Mission for Minute on its support of the Origins of Family and Pregnancy Services.