

Presbytery of Redstone

Communicate the Word...Carry on the Work...

Change the World.....Together!

September Gathering Highlights

- We gathered together on the beautiful hillside of Laurel Hill Presbyterian Church. As a presbytery, we were treated to the generous hospitality of a more rural congregation in Fayette County.
- Rev. Caroline Vickery was welcomed with the receipt of the Redstone stole. Also presented for new membership was the Rev. Katy Brungraber; pastor of the Ft. Burd church and Rev. William King; interim pastor of First Presbyterian, Murrysville.
- Both prior to and during the meeting, Pine Springs Camp reported on a great summer (2015) of camping. Upcoming fall retreats for women and various age groups of students were promoted.
- After some discussion and deliberation, the proposed new minimum terms of call for pastors was approved by the presbytery.
- The Presbytery heard the reports on the discernment process for Armagh-Seward, Manor and Middle churches. With sadness, each request for dismissal was granted based upon the conditions listed in the reports.
- Having concluded his service as the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery, Rev. Gary Close was honored with a session minutes book with entries from friends and colleagues around Redstone and was “sent” out with prayer.
- An initial report of the Nominating Committee was presented with a slate of new nominees for positions on Council, COM, CPM, Representation and PSC Board. These nominees were approved. The Committee announced Rev. Sue Washburn as the nominee for the position of Vice Moderator to be elected in November.
