

Stories of Redstone

Christ at work in our midst

Not all pastors serve in congregations... and not all congregations meet in a church building! Three Redstone pastors serving in validated ministry teach us about the depth and breadth of the Church:

Rev. Lisa Dormire, VP for Mission Support at Redstone Highlands, says "Where do I see Jesus? I see Jesus in the resident, who herself is wheelchair bound due to disease, make it her ministry to visit hospice residents and pray with them. I see Jesus in the tireless efforts of our hospice team members who are so dedicated to 'gentling the journey' for their patients. Obviously, Jesus is just all over the place here at Redstone!"

Rev. Becca Siddle, Chaplain at Redstone Highlands, says "I am inspired by their journeys every day, and witness the Love of Christ in how I hear them tenderly encourage one another, sharing their mutual stories of both loss and hope with one another." There are many similarities to church congregations, but Becca points to one difference: "It's pretty special to be able to hear the Proclamation of the Gospel in our chapel, for example, and then need to take mere footsteps to see and hear and FEEL that Gospel being lived out in real time. Christ is alive, and his Love triumphs every day at Redstone Highlands."

Rev. Susan Blank, Director of Pastoral Care at Presbyterian Senior Care at Oakmont, says "Here I am responsible to ensure that residents of all faith traditions have their spiritual and religious needs met. What a blessing to serve and love all of my neighbors. I learn daily from people who have walked in faith over ninety or a hundred years -- through thick and thin, joy and sorrow, blessings and woes. Here, the words that we pray and sing seem to take on a deeper truth and more urgency:

'Morning by morning new mercies I see; All I have needed Thy hand hath provided; Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me!'"

Pictured: (Top) A cross Rev. Siddle used in Easter worship, sharing signs of the Resurrection.

(Bottom) Rev. Blank with Sister Dolorita, a Senior Care resident

Communicate the Word...Carry on the Work...Change the World

Together!

Stories of Redstone

Christ at work in our midst

Not all pastors serve in congregations... and not all congregations meet in a church building! Three Redstone pastors serving in validated ministry teach us about the depth and breadth of the Church:

Rev. Lisa Dormire, VP for Mission Support at Redstone Highlands, says "Where do I see Jesus? I see Jesus in the resident, who herself is wheelchair bound due to disease, make it her ministry to visit hospice residents and pray with them. I see Jesus in the tireless efforts of our hospice team members who are so dedicated to 'gentling the journey' for their patients. Obviously, Jesus is just all over the place here at Redstone!"

Rev. Becca Siddle, Chaplain at Redstone Highlands, says "I am inspired by their journeys every day, and witness the Love of Christ in how I hear them tenderly encourage one another, sharing their mutual stories of both loss and hope with one another." There are many similarities to church congregations, but Becca points to one difference: "It's pretty special to be able to hear the Proclamation of the Gospel in our chapel, for example, and then need to take mere footsteps to see and hear and FEEL that Gospel being lived out in real time. Christ is alive, and his Love triumphs every day at Redstone Highlands."

Rev. Susan Blank, Director of Pastoral Care at Presbyterian Senior Care at Oakmont, says "Here I am responsible to ensure that residents of all faith traditions have their spiritual and religious needs met. What a blessing to serve and love all of my neighbors. I learn daily from people who have walked in faith over ninety or a hundred years -- through thick and thin, joy and sorrow, blessings and woes. Here, the words that we pray and sing seem to take on a deeper truth and more urgency:

'Morning by morning new mercies I see; All I have needed Thy hand hath provided; Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me!'"

Pictured: (Top) A cross Rev. Siddle used in Easter worship, sharing signs of the Resurrection.

(Bottom) Rev. Blank with Sister Dolorita, a Senior Care resident

Communicate the Word...Carry on the Work...Change the World

Together