

Stories of Redstone

Christ at work in our midst

On October 29th, congregations from around District III gathered to celebrate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. Over 200 Presbyterians representing many congregations gathered at Third Presbyterian Church of Uniontown for a worship service filled with music from bagpipes, organ, choir and praise band. The congregation even had a special visitor, hearing from Martin Luther himself (wonderfully portrayed by Paul Cramer) as he described what brought him to that moment of posting the 95 Theses and what hopes he held for the church. The congregation gathered at The Lord's Table, with communion served by intinction from elders representing the gathered congregations. The offering was designated for the Fayette County Community Action Food Bank. After worship, a bountiful covered dish dinner was enjoyed by all!

Third Presbyterian went over and above to be good hosts, but Rev. Coleen Molinaro also gave special thanks to each person who came from another congregation, noting the bravery it takes to enter an unfamiliar worship space. All who stepped out in faith were blessed by a truly wonderful and exciting day!

From those who attended there has been an overwhelmingly positive response. From a 9-year-old member of Fort Burd, to a teeneager of Third to the oldest member of Pleasant View, everyone is asking "when can we do this again?" The hope from the leaders of District III is soon!

What started as a "Spirit nudge" blossomed into a day full of encouragement, joy and unity! To God Be the Glory!

Pictured: Martin Luther (Paul Cramer) sharing how God worked through him to begin a new era in the life of the Church.

Communicate the Word...Carry on the Work...Change the World

Together!

Stories of Redstone

Christ at work in our midst

On October 29th, congregations from around District III gathered to celebrate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. Over 200 Presbyterians representing many congregations gathered at Third Presbyterian Church of Uniontown for a worship service filled with music from bagpipes, organ, choir and praise band. The congregation even had a special visitor, hearing from Martin Luther himself (wonderfully portrayed by Paul Cramer) as he described what brought him to that moment of posting the 95 Theses and what hopes he held for the church. The congregation gathered at The Lord's Table, with communion served by intinction from elders representing the gathered congregations. The offering was designated for the Fayette County Community Action Food Bank. After worship, a bountiful covered dish dinner was enjoyed by all!

Third Presbyterian went over and above to be good hosts, but Rev. Coleen Molinaro also gave special thanks to each person who came from another congregation, noting the bravery it takes to enter an unfamiliar worship space. All who stepped out in faith were blessed by a truly wonderful and exciting day!

From those who attended there has been an overwhelmingly positive response. From a 9-year-old member of Fort Burd, to a teeneager of Third to the oldest member of Pleasant View, everyone is asking "when can we do this again?" The hope from the leaders of District III is soon!

What started as a "Spirit nudge" blossomed into a day full of encouragement, joy and unity! To God Be the Glory!

Pictured: Martin Luther (Paul Cramer) sharing how God worked through him to begin a new era in the life of the Church.

Communicate the Word...Carry on the Work...Change the World

Together!