Christ at work in our midst "Welcome home!"

Rev. Donald Glunt returns to the region as the Pastor of the historic Rehoboth Presbyterian Church. Growing up in the South Oakland neighborhood, he served faithfully a pastorate in Missouri for the past twenty-two years. Now "home" in western PA, Don shares, "I am beside myself with joy. Every day I have wonderful experiences with friends and places both old and new.

Every day, I ask God, what have I done to deserve this?"

Rev. Ron Johnson began at Third Presbyterian Church, Uniontown in August 2018. Having come most recently from a church in Virginia, Ron and his wife (Rev. Jane Johnson) followed God's call to bring them back to the area.

He is excited about serving as a pastor and leading the church in praying, acting and serving in faith for the people of the area of Uniontown. In this journey of discipleship, we follow Jesus together, not merely for our sakes. but for the world.

We welcome them back to western Pennsylvania and to the ministry of Redstone Presbytery!

Communicate the Word...Carry on the Work...Change the World

Together!
