

Stories of Redstone

Christ at work in our midst

“No Crib for a Bed”

Here in the United States, we are preparing our homes, our main streets and our church sanctuaries for Christmas. Everywhere you turn, you cannot help but be reminded of the holiday season. However, we wonder if many of our Christian brothers and sisters around the world might have a much more intimate and deeper understanding of the Christmas story, even if they do not celebrate in the same elaborate fashion as we do.

This fall, Redstone was blessed to be visited by Pastor James Par Tap and Deaconess Nyankuac Ngor Chol Kadjang from the Evangelical Presbyterian Church in South Sudan. As they visited with us, they shared stories of strong faith in the midst of incredible hardship.

As they asked for prayer, they reminded us of the more than three million people who have fled the civil war in South Sudan and currently reside in refugee camps in nearby countries or in IDP (Internally Displaced Persons) camps in South Sudan. We are reminded of Mary and Joseph and young Jesus, fleeing the threat of violence and living as refugees in Egypt as we hear about our Sudanese brothers and sisters who have no safe home.

This Christmas, as we sing in “Away in a Manger” that Jesus had “no crib for a bed”, let us remember to pray for those who live under the threat of violence and oppression. Let us especially pray for our Sudanese brothers and sisters who have been both our teachers and our friends in the faith.

Communicate the Word...Carry on the Work...Change the World Together!

Stories of Redstone

Christ at work in our midst

“No Crib for a Bed”

Here in the United States, we are preparing our homes, our main streets and our church sanctuaries for Christmas. Everywhere you turn, you cannot help but be reminded of the holiday season. However, we wonder if many of our Christian brothers and sisters around the world might have a much more intimate and deeper understanding of the Christmas story, even if they do not celebrate in the same elaborate fashion as we do.

This fall, Redstone was blessed to be visited by Pastor James Par Tap and Deaconess Nyankuac Ngor Chol Kadjang from the Evangelical Presbyterian Church in South Sudan. As they visited with us, they shared stories of strong faith in the midst of incredible hardship.

As they asked for prayer, they reminded us of the more than three million people who have fled the civil war in South Sudan and currently reside in refugee camps in nearby countries or in IDP (Internally Displaced Persons) camps in South Sudan. We are reminded of Mary and Joseph and young Jesus, fleeing the threat of violence and living as refugees in Egypt as we hear about our Sudanese brothers and sisters who have no safe home.

This Christmas, as we sing in “Away in a Manger” that Jesus had “no crib for a bed”, let us remember to pray for those who live under the threat of violence and oppression. Let us especially pray for our Sudanese brothers and sisters who have been both our teachers and our friends in the faith.

Communicate the Word...Carry on the Work...Change the World Together!