

Stories of Redstone

Christ at work in our midst

Mission Partners

Even though Trinity Church in New Florence and Third Presbyterian Church in Uniontown are over 60 miles apart, the two churches have partnered for mission trips for the past four years. The congregations have worked together to rebuild homes and lives from New Jersey to Houston to the Carolinas.

Marilyn Fitzsimmons, an elder at Third, has a passion for planning mission trips that bring the churches together and also include students from local colleges like Penn State (Fayette), Clarion, Pitt and Robert Morris. She says that the mission partnership between the two congregations and college students has worked well.

“Our goal is to unite together with other people and denominations.”

Bill Betz of Trinity says the mission partnership has brought the congregation together in new ways. The older folks often have the finances to support mission but not the energy to do the work of mission. The younger people have the energy, but not always the money. Working together, they are able to reach out and help others in Jesus’ name.

Betz says going on mission trips has helped him to get a new perspective on his life and faith.

“I have way too many things. Material things used to be important. But, once you go on one of these trips and see what people don’t have it makes you rethink what it is you ‘need.’ The congregation has seen that change in me and it’s helped them to be more generous about mission.”

Fitzsimmons and Betz both welcome anyone who is interested to join their mission work by calling the church. Trinity also has a mission Facebook page at facebook.com/thelightmissionteam/

Stories of Redstone

Christ at work in our midst

Mission Partners

Even though Trinity Church in New Florence and Third Presbyterian Church in Uniontown are over 60 miles apart, the two churches have partnered for mission trips for the past four years. The congregations have worked together to rebuild homes and lives from New Jersey to Houston to the Carolinas.

Marilyn Fitzsimmons, an elder at Third, has a passion for planning mission trips that bring the churches together and also include students from local colleges like Penn State (Fayette), Clarion, Pitt and Robert Morris. She says that the mission partnership between the two congregations and college students has worked well.

“Our goal is to unite together with other people and denominations.”

Bill Betz of Trinity says the mission partnership has brought the congregation together in new ways. The older folks often have the finances to support mission but not the energy to do the work of mission. The younger people have the energy, but not always the money. Working together, they are able to reach out and help others in Jesus’ name.

Betz says going on mission trips has helped him to get a new perspective on his life and faith.

“I have way too many things. Material things used to be important. But, once you go on one of these trips and see what people don’t have it makes you rethink what it is you ‘need.’ The congregation has seen that change in me and it’s helped them to be more generous about mission.”

Fitzsimmons and Betz both welcome anyone who is interested to join their mission work by calling the church. Trinity also has a mission Facebook page at facebook.com/thelightmissionteam/

Communicate the Word...Carry on the Work...Change the World

Together!

Communicate the Word...Carry on the Work...Change the World

Together!