

Stories of Redstone

Christ at work in our midst

222nd General Assembly

A “YAAD” Perspective—Mandi Pascarella

“Young adults in the church often get a bad reputation. Many feel that we don’t know what is going on, or we just don’t care. While this sometimes is true, it is not always the case.

I was given the opportunity to attend General Assembly as a YAAD. On this trip, I met many amazing young adults, as well as many inspiring and influential members of the church. I was honored to share my thoughts and feelings on issues the church faces today. While much of what we did raised discussion and debate, at the end of the day we all came together in prayer and song. I believe the church is headed in a good direction with the current commissioners and will be in good hands in the future.

I’d like to thank you for selecting me to represent Redstone Presbytery. I would also like to thank my congregation (First, Greensburg). When I was baptized 19 years ago, they promised to love and support me as their own. I can affirm that along this road I have felt nothing less.”

(For more information on General Assembly...www.redstone.org)

Communicate the Word...Carry on the Work...Change the World

Together!

Stories of Redstone

Christ at work in our midst

222nd General Assembly

A “YAAD” Perspective—Mandi Pascarella

“Young adults in the church often get a bad reputation. Many feel that we don’t know what is going on, or we just don’t care. While this sometimes is true, it is not always the case.

I was given the opportunity to attend General Assembly as a YAAD. On this trip, I met many amazing young adults, as well as many inspiring and influential members of the church. I was honored to share my thoughts and feelings on issues the church faces today. While much of what we did raised discussion and debate, at the end of the day we all came together in prayer and song. I believe the church is headed in a good direction with the current commissioners and will be in good hands in the future.

I’d like to thank you for selecting me to represent Redstone Presbytery. I would also like to thank my congregation (First, Greensburg). When I was baptized 19 years ago, they promised to love and support me as their own. I can affirm that along this road I have felt nothing less.”

(For more information on General Assembly...www.redstone.org)

Communicate the Word...Carry on the Work...Change the World

Together!